About US

Fortech Media & Marketing Private Limited is a full-service branding, marketing, and communications company headquartered in Nashik, Maharashtra. The company serves clients across hospitality, real estate, healthcare, education, fashion, pharmaceuticals, and corporate services operating at the intersection of strategic thinking and measurable performance.

Fortech traces its origins to Fortune Media & Marketing, founded in 2022. What began as a focused creative marketing practice grew steadily into a structured agency managing multi-channel brand ecosystems for a diverse client portfolio.

In December 2025, the business was formally incorporated as Fortech Media & Marketing Private Limited — a step that reflects both the scale of operations and the seriousness with which the company approaches every client relationship.

Fortech is not a service vendor. It is a strategic growth partner — one that invests in understanding your business before it invests in marketing it.

Backed by 6+ years of industry experience and a track record across multiple sectors, Fortech brings the strategic depth of a national agency and the responsiveness of a regional partner — a combination that consistently earns the confidence of business owners, developers, and institutional decision-makers.

VISION

To be the most trusted brand growth partner for ambitious businesses across Maharashtra and beyond – recognised not by scale, but by the enduring market positions built for the clients we serve.

MISSION

To deliver brand strategy, marketing execution, and media solutions with the rigour, creativity, and accountability that produce measurable business outcomes – making every client's brand stronger, more visible, and more commercially effective.

A MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

Fortech was built on a simple conviction: that the businesses most deserving of great marketing are often the ones least served by it. Mid-market companies, ambitious entrepreneurs, growing institutions — they need strategic rigour, not agency templates.

The marketing landscape demands more than visibility today. It demands positioning clarity, creative consistency, and campaigns that connect intent to outcome. Every engagement at Fortech begins with understanding the business its model, its market, its ambitions — before a single brief is written.

“A brand built on strategy does not need to shout. It commands attention because it stands for something clear, consistent, and credible.”

The incorporation of Fortech as a Private Limited company marks a significant milestone — one that formalises the accountability and institutional credibility our clients deserve. It is the foundation from which Fortech will continue to grow: in capability, in portfolio, and in the depth of impact delivered for every business that partners with us.

The work is the reward. And the best of it is still ahead.

OUR STORY

2022

FOUNDED ON CONVICTION

Fortune Media & Marketing was established in Nashik with a clear brief: serve the brands that mainstream agencies were underserving. The focus from day one was strategic quality – treating every client's brand with the same rigour typically reserved for large enterprise accounts.

2022–
2024

BUILT ACROSS SECTORS

The agency developed genuine expertise across hospitality, healthcare, real estate, education, fashion, and manufacturing – deliberately. Multi-sector experience would become one of its most valuable assets: the ability to bring proven thinking from adjacent industries into every client engagement. Growth came primarily through referrals, the most reliable signal of consistent delivery.

2024–
2025

OUTGROWING THE ORIGINAL STRUCTURE

As the portfolio expanded and client complexity grew, it became clear the business had outgrown its founding structure. Enterprise – level clients required institutional credibility. Larger mandates demanded more formal operational frameworks. The scale of ambition – on both sides of the table – called for a stronger foundation.

FORTECH MEDIA & MARKETING PVT. LTD.

The formal incorporation as a Private Limited company was the logical next chapter. It preserved everything that made the original practice effective – the strategic culture, the creative standards, the client-first approach – while equipping the company to operate at a fundamentally higher level.

The name evolves. The standards don't. Fortech exists to build brands that endure and businesses that grow.

WHAT WE DO

Fortech operates across five integrated practice areas - each delivering standalone value, and greater compounded impact when deployed together.

BRAND STRATEGY & IDENTITY

Positioning, architecture, visual identity, brand guidelines, and corporate branding — the foundations that make every other marketing investment more effective.

CONTENT & CREATIVE

Graphic design, social media content, reels and short-form video, photography, and copywriting — creative output anchored in strategy, calibrated to platform and objective.

PERFORMANCE MARKETING

Meta Ads, Google Ads, lead generation, retargeting, and campaign analytics every rupee of media spend made accountable to a measurable outcome.

DIGITAL & TECHNOLOGY

Positioning, architecture, visual identity, brand guidelines, and corporate branding — the foundations that make every other marketing investment more effective.

MEDIA & COMMUNICATIONS

Positioning, architecture, visual identity, brand guidelines, and corporate branding — the foundations that make every other marketing investment more effective.

The name evolves. The standards don't. Fortech exists to build brands that endure and businesses that grow.

INDUSTRIES WE SERVE

Genuine cross-sector experience produces better thinking. Fortech's portfolio spans eight industries — enabling the agency to apply proven strategies across verticals where competitors are still working from first principles.

HOSPITALITY, FOOD & BEVERAGE

From restaurant identity to hotel social strategy, Fortech understands hospitality audiences: emotionally driven, visually influenced, and quick to share. Campaigns are built to drive footfall and build community.

REAL ESTATE & DEVELOPMENT

Project branding, developer positioning, digital campaigns, and lead generation work that builds desire for a property before it exists and credibility for the developer behind it.

EDUCATION

Enrolment marketing, institutional branding, and digital campaigns calibrated to academic cycles connecting schools and coaching centres with the students and parents who need them.

PHARMACEUTICAL

Brand identity and corporate communications for pharma clients, built on the credibility and discipline that the sector requires.

HEALTHCARE & MEDICAL

Patient trust, practitioner authority, and institutional visibility handled with the sensitivity and accuracy that healthcare communication demands.

FASHION & LIFESTYLE

Visual storytelling, elevated content production, and social strategy for clothing and lifestyle brands that want to lead cultural conversations in their category.

OUR APPROACH

A five-phase engagement model — taking brands from diagnostic clarity to sustained market performance.

DISCOVER — BUSINESS & BRAND DIAGNOSTIC

Understanding your business model, competitive position, audience, and current brand perception. The foundation everything else is built on.

DEFINE — STRATEGY & POSITIONING

Clear brand positioning, communication architecture, audience profiles, and channel strategy — documented in a strategic brief that guides all execution.

DESIGN — IDENTITY & CREATIVE SYSTEM

Visual identity, messaging, content guidelines, and brand assets — strategy made visible.

DEPLOY — EXECUTION ACROSS CHANNELS

Strategy activated across digital, social, performance, and media channels with the consistency great brands demand.

DEVELOP — MEASURE, OPTIMISE & GROW

Performance tracked against defined KPIs. Regular reviews and data-driven optimisation that compound value over every campaign cycle.

The Fortech Growth Framework is not a linear project plan. It is a continuous operating system — keeping your brand aligned, your marketing accountable, and your growth on track.

BRANDS THAT TRUST FORTECH

A cross-section of the clients Fortech has served — spanning seven industries, at every stage of growth, united by one shared standard: they take their brand seriously.

THE BRANDS THAT DEFINE MARKETS ARE BUILT BEFORE THE MARKET NOTICES.

This is not an agency pitch.
It is an invitation to build something that lasts.

START THE CONVERSATION

Whether you are launching a new brand, repositioning an existing one, scaling your digital presence, or building a marketing capability — the first step is a conversation. Fortech works with businesses that are serious about their market position and prepared to invest in building it with rigour and intention.
